Tanya Karn

Los Angeles, California, USA

Tanya has been dancing for almost 30 years, and has trained under an endless array of professional choreographers and dancers. Tanya also has over 15 years of teaching experience at studios across the province, and has received choreography and overall awards at competitions throughout Ontario. She is continuing to work as a dance adjudicator and freelance choreographer, receiving many awards and recognition for her work.

Most recently, she worked as movement coordinator for the upcoming Amazon Prime release Them Covenant, as well as a private dance coach for an actor in the new feature film Nightmare Alley. Other choreography credits include The Next Step on the Family Channel, The Next Star and Supergroup on YTV, and Danny Fernandes' International Dear Life Tour in China.

Tanya began her professional dance career at the age of 15, working closely with choreographer Luther Brown. From there, she received a role as a principal dancer in the Disney release of Camp Rock 2 starring Demi Lovato and the Jonas Brothers and has since had roles in many films and television shows.

Tanya received both an Honours Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Science degree in Kinesiology from Wilfrid Laurier University. Tanya is also the co-owner/director of the new solo dance event Battle of the Next Generation, designed to provide young, aspiring dancers with the knowledge, experience, and opportunities they need to break into the professional dance industry.

Sarah Cherewko

Montreal, Quebec, Canada

Sarah began dancing before the age of two and quickly discovered she was enthusiastic about music, movement and dance. Originally from Calgary, AB, Sarah trained extensively in RAD and Cecchetti ballet, Al Gilbert tap, ADAPT tap and jazz, lyrical, modern, acro, contemporary, musical theater and hip hop while dancing competitively until the age of 17.

As part of a non-profit touring performance company, she had had the opportunity to perform in England, Scotland, Australia, New Zealand, Spain and Morocco and at 18, signed her first of many contracts as a dancer with Carnival Cruise Lines. After moving to Montreal in 2011, her passion for teaching grew stronger and she transitioned out of performing and began working exclusively as a teacher and choreographer. Sarah, now an accomplished teacher with twenty years of experience is an award winning and high score choreographer, an adjudicator at several Canadian dance competitions and in her free time is studying to become a youth counsellor.

Now a certified Acrobatic Arts teacher, Sarah prides herself on providing a safe, fun, positive class environment where students can feel comfortable to explore movement, technique and also experience vulnerability and personal growth.

Alia Ruemper

Calgary, Alberta, Canada

Alia is a certified ADAPT jazz & tap teacher and has completed her Canadian Dance Teachers Association (CDTA) Gold medal jazz and tap exams with Honours status. She has a BA Dance and a BKin General Kinesiology from the University of Calgary and completed her MSc in Dance Science (with distinction) at Laban in London, England. Alia is also Certified in the Acrobatic Arts syllabus, Progressing Ballet Technique and International Dance Teaching Standards.

Her Master thesis “Correlations Between General Joint Hypermobility and Joint Hypermobility Syndrome and Injury in Contemporary Dance Students” was published in the Journal of Dance Medicine and Science. She also presented her thesis at the International Association of Dance Medicine and Science conference in The Hague, The Netherlands where she was received the “Student Research Award”. While she was completing her Masters degree in England she performed in a charity showcase of the musical, “Me and My Girl” at the famous London Palladium, and also participated in the Jack Petchey Theatre Challenge at Her Majesty’s Theatre.

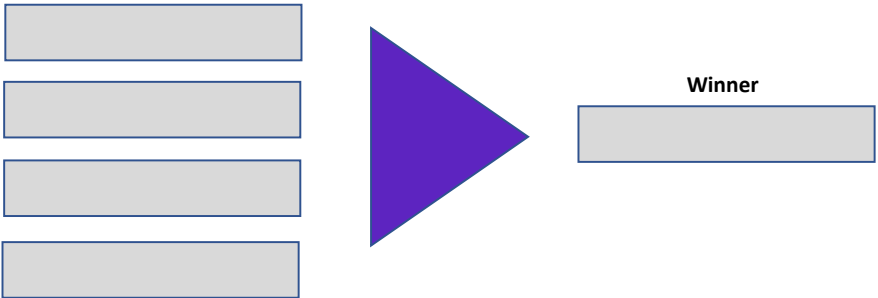

In 2020, Alia was named Dance Educator of the Year by Canada’s National Academy of Dance Education and also received the Heather Simpson Memorial Award. She is an active member of Dance Safe Alberta and Wild Rose Dance Arts.

WELCOME TO THE PARADYM DANCE CHALLENGE TOURNAMENT!

There are two sections: The preliminary round, which includes solos/duos/trios; and Competitive Tier Two and Three groups. The preliminary round only dances once in the finals. After the preliminary rounds, the Competitive Tier One tournament begins and performances will dance over two rounds; the top four will be reduced to top two and then a final winner will be announced. Use the following sheets to follow along with the tournament.
