Diana Viselli

Toronto, Ontario, Canada

Diana Viselli is a professional instructor and choreographer. Early on her dance development consisted of competitive dance training, Hip Hop pre-professional dance companies and, most memorably, training at Edna Manley College of the Arts in Kingston Jamaica.

For the past 14 years Diana has taught, choreographed and successfully trained youth and children across Canada. She has choreographed for numerous foundations, events and industry shows including collaborations with Toronto Breast Cancer Foundation, Pepsi Canada, Lululemon Canada, Toronto Youth Day, Dusk Dances and City of Toronto's; City on the Move. She has choreographed opening performances for headliners including Cindy Lauper, Akon and Justin Bieber.

Diana was the founder and director of 180Arts, a dance and musical theatre production program for schools across Ontario. Funded by TD Canada Bank, her program had over 4,000 students participate in school wide musicals, flash mobs, charity dance-a thons and dance workshops. Diana was nominated for RBC Women of Influence Award in 2018 for her entrepreneurship and contribution to dance education and the performing arts.

Carly Gordon

Hamilton, Ontario, Canada

Carly has been performing professionally for nearly 20 years and prides herself on being both a well-rounded performer and a well-educated, passionate teacher and choreographer. She trained in a wide variety of genres and performed as a member of the PGD Dance Company in numerous variety, charity and industrial shows.

The experience of being trained by her expert parents Paul and Anita Gordon was nothing short of phenomenal. Carly later began to shift her focus to musical theatre and, after training with a variety of industry professionals, Carly joined the St.Clair Centre for the Arts touring company as a dancer in the cast of It's Contagious. Shortly after, Carly made her professional choreographic debut choreographing the Rocky Horror Show. She then accepted her first international contract, performing in nightly shows as a member of the main stage cast for the Royal Solaris in Cancun, Mexico. There, Carly continued to broaden her training and expertise in both ballroom and latin rhythms.

In 2015, Carly and her father Paul Gordon debuted their original '30s & '40s review show entitled All Of Me as special guest performers with VegasNorth in Toronto and continue to perform their act in various venues today. After three years performing as a dancer/singer with Carnival Cruise Lines, Carly completed her most recent contract at sea as a Cast Manager and Dance Captain, performing in a range of Carnival's main stage Playlist Production shows across international waters.
